Business Partners

Business Partner is an organization, business or other type of entity with which an RJC member has a direct business relationship. This relationship can involve a contractual agreement to buy or sell any product or service related to the materials in scope of the COP.

Business partners include all contractors, agents, customers, suppliers, local and international intermediaries or traders, and joint venture partners. They also include service providers such as security services and recruitment agencies, or any other third parties subject to your due diligence through COP requirements or applicable law. Business partners do not include end consumers buying products for personal use.

Employees include both directly employed workers that have contracts with the RJC member and indirectly employed workers that regularly work at members' sites and that have employment contracts with a third party, such as a labour agent, labour provider or contractor/subcontractor.

A significant business partner is any business partner that is very important to the RJC member's business, including all major suppliers and large customers.

Members should use their own judgement to determine whether a business partner is significant or not. For example, traders that sell you coloured gemstones would be considered significant business partners unless the volume or value of material you are buying is very small.

Members shall use their best endeavours, commensurate with their ability to influence, to promote responsible business practices among their significant business partners.

Policy Statement on Morden Slavery and Anti Human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that modern slavery and human trafficking do not occur in our workplace or within our supply chain. The company has a zero-tolerance approach to modern-day slavery. Policy – Sourcing

HARI DARSHAN EXPORTS PVT.LTD. is committed to ensuring that our supply chain is free of any metal which was procured for the support or benefit of armed and anti-social conflict groups or involving serious abuses of human rights and non-compliant with OECD Guidelines. We hereby inform all our suppliers to provide the first mine of origin for the material they supply to us. We request all our suppliers not to supply any material that is subject to restriction as per EU Reg. 833/2014

HARI DARSHAN EXPORTS PVT.LTD. clearly criticizes such activity and will reject any material which we believe was obtained involving serious human rights violations or which benefitted or supported armed rebels or terrorist groups through illegal finance or other activities.

The company shall carry out risk assessment for its supply chain and shall not enter into any business relationship or if may require then shall suspend/discontinue the engagement with any such supplier involved in dealing with Conflict-Affected and High-Risk areas, Any form of Human Right Violation; Torture, Cruel, In-Human and Degrading Treatment; Forced/Compulsory Labour; Child Labour; Abuses such as widespread Sexual Violence; War Crimes; other serious violations of International Humanitarian Law, Crime against Humanity; Genocide and/or To Bribe or To be Bribed. We strictly condemn and prohibit any Direct/Indirect support to public/private security forces which illegally Control, Tax or Extort money from Mining Sites, Transportation Routes and Upstream Sectors.

The Company shall carry out due diligence to assess risks related to procurement from the Conflict-affected and high-risk areas – CAHRAs and shall always source from compliant miners/refiners/traders.

We shall always set reasonable efforts to source Conflict Minerals from smelters and refiners validated as being DRC Conflict Free, and require their direct and indirect suppliers to do the same;

We strive to work supportively with our customers and supply chain partners in implementing conflict minerals compliance programs.

Policy – Due Diligence

The company shall always undertake to ensure that the extraction and trade of diamond support peace and development, not conflict.

HARI DARSHAN EXPORTS PVT.LTD. remains committed to enhance its Supply Chain Due Diligence program through internal review and external assessments. We have zero tolerance policy for the supplier violating OECD due diligence guideline and we shall immediately stop

Sourcing directly from Artisanal and small-Scale Mining

Artisanal and small-scale mining (ASM) refers to formal or informal operations by individuals, groups, families or co-operatives that can involve up to hundreds of thousands of miners. ASM usually uses little capital and a lot of labour and is carried out with minimal or no mechanisation (although it can involve small and fully mechanised operations).

The exact definition of 'artisanal' and 'small' mining may be stated by national legislation and categorised according to, for instance, a mining organisation's volume of production of ore or mineral, the size of its concession or the level of mechanisation. Using best endeavours means acting honestly, reasonably and with a positive effort to perform the relevant obligation. Under this provision, it means a company's efforts to reduce or avoid the risks of harmful practices in ASM (including human rights abuses, unsafe work and environmental harm).

Vulnerable groups are characterised by their higher risk and reduced ability to cope with shock or negative impacts. Their vulnerability may be based on socio-economic condition, gender, age, disability, ethnicity or other criteria that influence people's ability to access resources and development opportunities. It is always specific to the particular location and time.

The company shall never source any material directly from Artisanal and small-Scale Mining and in case if any such material sourced, Regularly assess risks outlined in COP 7 areas
